

Asst. Prof.

Eylem AYDEMİR ÇİL

(Aquaculture Engineer / Member of the Association)

She is a member of the Black Sea Environmental and Marine Research Association. She took part in many national and international projects. Bachelor of Fisheries, Fisheries in Basic Sciences; She holds a master's degree in hydrobiology and a doctorate in limnology. She works on the protection of aquatic ecosystems, marine and inland water biodiversity, water quality, special ecosystems, aquatic invertebrates, benthic ecosystems, environmental pollution and recycling. As a member of the Black Sea Environmental and Marine Research Association, she takes an active role in the projects to be carried out. She works for the development of projects carried out and to be carried out for the present, future and future of this special basin.

Please click for detailed information about her academic life, publications and projects.

e-mail

eylem.aydemir@bsemar.com